THE TORCH PRESS

-- PRINTERS --
BOOKBINDERS

THE name of The Torch Press has become synonymous with the highest quality of book-making in every detail. There is no exaggeration in the statement that the imprint of The Torch Press is to be found on some of the finest press-work done in this country.

As much care is taken with small as with large commissions. Special editions, privately printed books, catalogues, etc., are executed with the same high quality of workmanship as the regular line.

We do not undertake anything in the way of printing unless for quality combined with utmost care--and our Torch Press for service.

The Torch Press Book Shop

The Book Shop, a distinct department of The Torch Press, issues regular catalogues and has an extensive stock of new and old books, particularly scarce and old American titles.

Should you have an interest in any branch of literature, catalogs will be sent to your address on receipt of a post card. Western and Mississippi Valley history a specialty. Old maps, engravings, and prints bought and sold.
